Requests from Many Sources for Special Days at the Great Exposition.

Indiana's State Bailding to Be Dedicated on "German Day," June 15-Mrs. Hart's Donegal Village Inaugurated Yesterday.

OPEN ONE SUNDAY, AT LEAST.

Visitors to Be Admitted at the World's Fair To-Morrow-Demand for Special Days, CHICAGO, May 26 .- Open to the world will be the gates of the Columbian exposition next Sunday. The officials in charge are making extensive preparations to recerve immense crowds there on that day, and, if the weather is pleasant, they intimate that the attendance will be greater than that of any day since the opening of the fair. After hearing argaments all day in the Clingman injunction suit against the directors of the Columbian exposition, to prevent their closing the the gates on Sunday, Judge Stein took the matter under advisement until Monday morning. Pending his decision no action in the premises will be taken by any court in Cook county. This will leave the Sanday opening resolution of the directory undisturbed by legal proceedings. The federal district attorney will file his bill for an injunction to-morrow, he said to-night that no action would be taken until next week. and that a temporary restraining order will not be asked for pending the arguments on the bill. Chief Justice Fuller will probably occupy a seat on the bench. It is the earnest desire of the government, according to Mr. Milchrist, that the decision shall be made by such an array of eminent legal talent that no shadow of doubt will rest on the justness of the judge's conclusions, whatever they may be.

June bids fair to be a most prosperous month for the World's Columbian Exposition. From the number of societies and organizations of various kinds all over the country that have written of their intention to come during the next month, Col. Cuip, secretary of the committee on ceremonies, estimates the average daily attendance will be near 150,000 people. Every day for the last fortnight bundreds of letters have been received by Colonel Culp from the officials of various organizations making inquiry regarding the programme for the different special days. So far the interest in "Germany's day, June 15, seems to be the greatest. On that day occurs the anniversary of the ascension of the present Emperor to the throne. Special trains have been chartered by German societies in Milwaukee, St. Louis, Cincinnati and other large cities, according to the letters received by Colonel Culp. Then there are 400,000 German residents in Chicago who will be well represented at the fair on "German day."

INDIANA DEDICATION DAY. Another feature that will swell the attendance on June 15 is that the State building of Indiana will be dedicated on that day. The Governor, his staff and all the State officials have arranged to come. Special trains will be run from Indianapolis and other large cities in Indiana.

Brooklyn, N. Y., is the lirst of the large cities to ask for a special day. The request for a day was received from the city clerk of that city to-day and June 27 was set seide as "Brooklyn day." The State Legislature of Massachusetts has appropriated $12,0.0 for the Governor to prepare a suitable programme at the world's fair on "Bunker Hill day," June The Swedish citizens will celebrate June 23 for their day. The citizens of New Hampshire will celebrate the anniversary of the ratification of the federal Constitution on June 25, while on June 5 the Danish citizens will make a display in honor of the granting of the constitation to Denmark by Frederick VII in 1842. As yet the greatest drawback, according t letters received, seems to be the refusal of ratiroad companies to make reasonable rates to Chicago during the fair. The Kentneky State building will be completed by Saturday night. On Monday a large force of men will be put to work to get the farniture in place, working all hight, if necessary. The special occasion of the baste is to have the building in readlness for a hospitable reception to the Kentucky Press Association which will arrive Tuesday, May 30. On Thursday, June 1, the building will be formally dedicated with appropriate ceremonies, including an address by the Governor of the State. The day is the anniversary of the date of Kentucky's admission into the Union. At the conclusion of the ceremonies at the State building the Kentucky woman's executive committee, consisting of Mrs. Sue Phillips Brown, Miss Ida Symmes, Miss Lucy Lee Hill and Miss Mand Kirkman, will hold an informal reseption in the Kentucky room in the woman's building.

The unveiling of the silver statute, "Justice," will take place at the Montana mineral rooms in the Mines Building on Tuesday, May 30, at 3 o'clock P. M. The programme will include music, an address by Hon. Martin Maginuis, of Montana, and Mrs. Rickards, wife of ex-Governor Rickards, will pull the string unveiling the beautiful work of art.

The Italian section of liberal arts in the Manufacturer's Building will be opened Saturday afternoon, May 27, at 4 o'clock. The exhibit of liberal arts comprises a rate and beantiful collection, such as Roman jewelry, sculpture, carvings, etc.,

well worth seeing. THE DONEGAL VILLAGE.

A pleasant international incident of the exposition was the manguration, to-day, of Mrs. Ernest Hart's Donegal village. The Catholic clergy and leading Irish Nationalists rallied to the support of the English woman's village, because Mrs. Hart, without patronage of rank or title, has established factories in the poorest parts of Donegal and taught the people to spin and weave, to make lace, and embroidery, and tweeds. She brought employment and prosperity where idleness, squalor and want

The chancellor was escorted to the grounds by 150 members of the Gaelic Athletic Association. Addresses were made by Chancellor Muldoon, Messra. At a reception given by the ladies of the New York board, on the occasion of the formal opening of the library in the Woman's Building, this afternoon, Isabella Beecher Hooker unveiled the bust of her famous sister. Harriet Beecher Stowe. Frederick Douglass, that honored representative of his race, was present and took part in the ceremony, and read appropriate selections from "Uncle Tom's Cabin." The bust of Mrs. Stowe was made by Anne Whitney, of Boston, the scalptor, who made the statue of Samuel Adams at Washington, and Harriet Martineau at Wellesey College. The national World's Fair Commissioners adjourned to-day until July 1. When the commission met to-day Mr. Woodside called up the Massey matter and moved that the resignation be accepted. Mr. Meyers offered an amendment to accompany the acceptance, with a vote of thanks. Mr. Woodside accepted the amendment and the resolution accepting Mr. Massey's resignation from the judiciary committee was accepted. Mr. Tonsley, of Minnesota, moved that the commission adjourn until July 1. In explaining his motion he said the commission practically did nothing. Nearly $100 had been spent in sending telegrams to members to come and attend the session, but since the Sundayopening debate on last Tuesday a quorum had not been present, consequently no business of importance could be transacted. The commission, as it now worked, was a useless expense. Commissioner White, of New Mexico, made a violent protest, claimthe commission could adjourn to a fixed time witha quorum being present. offered an amendment to adjourn until tomorrow at 12 o'clock. This was defeated by 14 to 12, and White cried: "No quorum." When that claim had been disposed of acting President Deloung put the question, and, in a division resulting in 22 year and 12 nays, he declared the commission stood adjourned to July 1. Evidence has been secured by world's fair officials that an enormous number of souvenir tickets have been stolen by the ticket takers and that they dispose of them to several ticket sellers who were in the conspiracy. To-morrow a number of warrants will be served on several men employed at the turnstiles. It is estimated that the number stolen will range from 5 .-000 to 8,000 a day. The paid admissions at the world's fair to-day were $2,463.

Sunday Opening Denounced. WASHINGTON, May 26 .- At the session of the fourth general conference of the Epworth District League to-day the committee on resolutions submitted the following. which was adopted, and notice of the action taken telegraphed to the world's fair authorities at Chicago: Resolved, That the opening of the Columbian Exposition on the Sabbath is a sin against God and a crime against man. That after having accepted from the Nation $2,500,000 under a promise that the gates should be closed on Sunday the violation of this agreement is an illustration of the disregard of a solemn contract that is at once discreditable to the business men who compose the board of management and is a reproach to us as a Christian nation. We denounce such an attempt to rob us of our Christian Saboath, and we call on all our people to withdraw their patronage from the exposition in any and every way so long as the violation of the Sabbath laws shall continue. Resolved, That we commend the President and Attorney-general for their prompt action to close the gates of the world's fair in accordance with the conditions stipulated by Congress in the Lutherans Will Not Boycott the Fair. CANTON, O., May 26,-The conservative element prevailed in the General Lutheran Synod, to-day, in the matter of resolutions concerning Sunday opening of the world's fair. The committee reported framed resolutions in which the synod's opposition to the opening or attempt to open on Sunday is stated in no uncertain terms, but from which all talk of boycott, withdrawal of patronage, etc., is eliminated. Home missions was the special order of the day. There have been material increases, but not up to expectation. Forty thousand dol-the Fair to Be a Success. LONDON, May 26 .- The Daily Telegraph says editorially this morning: "The relinquishment of the jury system of awards at the Chicago world's fair for Mr. Thatcher's plan will be regarded with the utmost snepicion and repugnance by foreign exhibitors. It would be innocence closely approaching fatality to imagine that the political and municipal precedents of the conduct of American attairs will be wholly ignored by the experts whom Mr. Thatcher proposes to send wandering about the fair in order to report to the Chinese sounding bureau of awards. Unless the poor attendance at the fair be increased by a European invasion, there is melancholy reason to fear the failure of the fair will be as colossal as its inception. The Standard says: "Altogether, the world's fair within a month has caused much unpleasant friction. It cannot be described as in any way a success."

The A. P. A. and the Catholics. To the Editor of the Indianapells Journal:

I have expected some one to answer what you lately said, editorially, about the new order of A. P. A., but have not seen anything so far. Maybe the members are not allowed to discuss it, and it might be wise for an outsider to keep his hands off. We are told, as an inducement to join, that many municipal and railroad corporations employ none but Catholics. Spokane Falls. Chicago and Baltimore are given as examples. If such reports can be successfully refuted why doesn't some man take it upon himself to do it? An ex-county commissioner came to me during the last campaign, and said: "Mr. D. will surely be defeated, because he is a member of the P. O. S. of A. There wen't one Catholic in the county vote for him." I admit that this ex-C. C. may be a "fool friend" of his church, but how are we to know! He went to the Democrats and Republicans alike with the same story, threatening them with a secret organization within the Catholic Church. Nobody denies it-and what are we to do! Must the fact of a man's being a patriot and in favor of American institutions debar bim from running for office? A few years ago the Presbyterian minister at Waveland refused to officiate at the funeral services held in honor of President Garfield. He said: "I never knew Garfield, and don't understand the sentiment that makes people want to hold a funeral service here in Waveland when the dead man's remains are in Cleveland, O." Assetting an example that has since been followed by a distinguished person, he went fishing and left the Methodist minister to preach the funeral. Then his fear was that the congregation had no further use for him, and he left, having learned a good lesson in patriotism. He was an Irishman, and imight have been excused for not revering the memory of his dead ruler, but must the patrictic people of Waveland be accused of conspiring against the Presbyterian Church because they did not consider its minister a suitable person to instruct them and their children? The condemnation is against such men. wherever found, and not against any branch of the great Christian Church. That there are, and always have been, patriotic Americans in the Roman Catholic Church is well known, but they should ascert themselves, and, like the Presbyterians at Waveland, have nothing to do with mon who propose to Europeanize America. It is a fight for patriotism that is on, and not one in and of religious persecution.

CEDAR BASS LAKE TERROR

CAPTURING THE BEAST. Party Starts Out from Knox and Slays the Cedar Bass Lake Serpent.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. KNOX, Ind., May 26,-A few days ago there was a report of a mammoth serpent in Cedar Bass lake. Since then life bas been anything but pleasant to those resid ing around the usually quiet beach of the lake, and fishermen have stoutly declined to sail about the place. The evening of day the serpent was first the the steamer City of Kokomo so near meeting disaster that its passengers were frightened nearly to death, and since then she has refrained from crossing the lake. No one would venture near the center of the lake, where it was given out the monster made its home. Passengers on the City of Kokomo say the animal sprang up under the front of the boat, darting the other end into the water. It then immediately sank from sight. All the occupants were drenched, and the engineer and firemen thrown into the water, but swam to a sand bal Each time the serpent had been observed it had been at about the same point in the lake, which is near the center in about sixty feet of water. Yesterday G. A. Scott and B. J. Andrews, president and secretary, respectively, of the Knox Mutual Fire Insurance Company, and both well known in Chicago in legal and insurance circles, got up a party to capture the intruder. In the party were bankers Henderson, Castleman and Dial, W. A. Breing, County Treasurer Fuller, merchants Pierson and Kofsel and Rev. S. Borsel, of this city: Judge Burso and Prosecutor Steis, of Winamac; Thomas Bartee, of Chicago, and the Hon, and Mrs. George Scoville. Some women from here had promised to go, but their courage left them when the crisis came. The party was loaded in five row boats, each liberally supplied with axes, spears, guns and am-

The boats formed a circle about the spot, and Mr. Henderson let down a heavy anchor attached to seventy feet of rope, and dragged it back and forth over the place where Mr. Serpent was thought to be at home. After a few moments a gurgling sound was heard. The water began to boil and bubble, and suddenly, like a cyclone, came the serpent to the top. Twenty shots from Winchesters were fired at it in quick succession, none of them seeming to take effect. It made a dive for the Scoville boat only to swim around it and away again. Mrs. Scoville became flustrated and fainted. The fish paddled slowly, as if exasperated, keeping near the surface of the water. It went to a sand bar one hundred yards distant, where it raised on its sealy tail and calmly viewed the party. Shot after shot was poured into it until blood streamed from its eyes and nostrile. It was soon blinded floundered about hearly dead. Then came the desired opportunity. A noose was adjusted about its neck by nervy Judge Burson, who tied the rope to his boat. The other boats then hitched together and tandem fashion rowed the beast to shore, landing him at the Chittick pier, When safely anchored and after it was thought dead, a swish of the serpent's tail but he was promptly rescued. To-day crowds have come from every direction see the wonder and bands music were present from Knox Winamac. W. H. Ronayan, a Cleveland saloon keeper, purchased the treasure, giving the party each $5 for their bazardous undertaking. He will stuff its hide and exhibit it in his place of business, t measures thirty-six feet four inches, 18 three feet thick and weighs 1,250 pounds. When stretched open its mouth measures twenty-three inches. There is thought to be no more dangerous animals in the lake, and the residents are now happy. MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE. Indictment Against Coley Brown That Will Keep Him in Jail.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DANVILLE, Ind., May 26.-Late this afternoon the grand jury returned a bill against Coley Brown, the slayer of Samuel Wesper, charging bim with murder in the first degree. The jury had considerable discussion and some wrangling before agreeing on the bill. A warrant was at once issued for Brown, but he will not be informed of the grand jury's action until morning. It will be sad news to him, as he confidently expected an indictment that would allow him to give bail. D. F. Hill, the prosecuting attorney, said to-night that the State was ready for trial at any time. Hogate and Clark, Brown's attorneys, say they have given no consideration as yet to their proceedings in the matter, and they cannot say whether they could be ready for trial at this term. A special judge will have to be secured, as Judge Hadley is a witness, Judge Hadley to-night said circumstances would govern the time of the trial. If both sides were ready and a judge could be found the case might be called this term, but he could not now say about that. Confinement does not agree with Brown, who has been quite sick to-day with stomach trouble. Brown will probably be arraigned in court in the morning.

NONA LIKES VIOLENT LOVE. Something of the History of Miss Byrkit,

Who Eloped at Albany. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. NEW CASTLE, Ind., May 26,-Miss Nona Byrkit, the sixteen-year-old preacher's daughter, who eloped with Jacob P. Anderson, of this city, from Albany, Ind. Wednesday, has had quite an experience in that line for one so young. A year and a half ago she lived with her parents at Spiceland, this county, where she had two ardent admirers, Erie Lamb and Cecil Hudelson. She looked on Lamb with most favor, but her parents thought Hudelson was about the right man, and compelled her to cease receiving attentions from Lamb. While Lamb was holding his farewell interview with her one evening some one shot through the house, and Hudelson was arrested on a charge of attempted manslaughter. A truce was soon arranged, and Hudelson alone basked in he supshine of her seductive smiles. They became engaged, but on account of their extreme youthfulness her parents objected to an early marriage. She was obdurate, and threatened to clope. To insure her remaining at home she was looked in an upper room in her father's house and not allowed to see or communicate with anyone outside of the family. By some means she sent word to her lover that she was imprisoned, and appealed to him to rescue her. Taking his ather into the scheme he sallied forth one night to secure the girl and marry her. He drove near the house, and, leaving the horse and buggy in his father's care, took a small ladder which he had brought with him, and, placing it up to the window from which the agreed signal was floating, started to go up, calling meanwile: "Nona, are you there!" Just then the irate father of the imprisoned Nona came around the bonse with a stout club and began belaboring the young man without delay. He fled instantly, and shortly afterwards the girl's family moved away. The attach-ment was not broken off, however, and less than a month ago a conneil was held in a law office in this city to try to arrange for another elopement by the girland Hudelson. The plans were all laid, and would grown up it would be interesting to have have carried but for the miscarriage of a another bust made and placed beside the letter, which fell into the wrong hands and | teeth begin to fail, and the breath to lose its exposed the scheme. DUNKARDS LOSE MONEY. The Muncle Gathering Entailed Over $5,000 Expenses, Which Exceeded Receipts.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. MUNCIE, Ind., May 26,-The Dankards have about all left the city and the big meeting is over. The bad weather to-day put a stop to further services. The expense of the meeting is over $5,000, far in excess of the receipts. This deficiency is made up by a fund held by the church. Last year's meeting was also a loss, but the Hagerstown (Md.) meeting swelled the treasury.

The Dunkard College at Ladogs. Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

LADOGA, Ind., May 26.-People here are rejoicing to-day because the annual meeting of Dunkards at Muncie granted the right to establish a Dunkard college here. Our citizens donated buildings and grounds to the value of $30,000, and nave already taken about $20,000 stock in the enterprise. The stock will be increased to $40,000. The Dunkards have no school in this State nor in Ohio, and the school to be located here will have a large patronage, for the Dunkard population in the two States mentioned is very great. No other town or city in the United States made such a large donation or offered such flattering inducements as did Ladoga.

FREDERICK KETTLE KILLED.

An Indiana Young Man Met Instant Death in Bloomington, Itt.

Special to the Indiapapolis Journal. BLOOMINGTON, Ill., May 26,-Frederick W. Kettle, of Auburn, Ind., met with instant death to-day at Chenos, Ili. He was on his way from St. Louis to Chicago on an Alton freight train, and at Chenoa got off. In attempting to board the train while in motion Kettle fell under the wheels, and his head and one arm were cut off. He was apparently twenty-two years old. It appears from letters on his person that Kettle had got into trouble at Auburn and had fled, but he had concluded to return and stand the consequences. His father has been telegraphed, and he has ordered the remains sent home by express.

CAPTAIN HART'S SUCCESSOR

How Samuel Blackwell Secured the Third Auditorship of the Treasury.

An Ardent Ex-Cenfederate Placed Where He May Do Injustice to Loyal Citizens-Treasurer Nebeker Makes Good a Loss.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, May 26,-Samuel Blackwell. Captain Hart's successor as Third Anditor of the Treasury, made his appearance to-day and introduced himself. He will take charge on next Monday, and Captain Hart expects to start for home on Tuesday. The two gentlemen discovered a curious coincidence in their war histories. Mr. Blackwell enlisted at fourteen years of age at Decatur, Ala. Captain Hart also enlisted when he was fourteen years old, and, after the warended, his battery, the Twenty-fifth Indiana, was doing garrison duty at Decatur. It may interest Mesers. Avery and McDonald, of Indiana, and the nineteen other candidates from all parts of the Union who made such an earnest struggle for Mr. Hart's place, to know that their papers were never even looked at by the President. General Wheeler, the famous ex-chief of the confederate cavalry, called on President Cleveland, a few days ago, with Mr. Blackwell, and demanded a place. Mr. Cleveland had declined to make Blackwell the Commissioner of Customs, as he had desired to be, but the President was so urgently pressed by General Wheeler that in his despair he remembered Captain Hart's anxiety to be relieved, and he gave Mr. Blackwell the place without a moment's reflection. The appointment has been sharply criticised, since such an ardent confederate as Mr. Blackwell is hardly the best man to make chief of a great division, whose entire duty is confined to the examination of claims of loyal citizens arising out of the war of the rebellion. A. M. Bowman, of Covington, Ind., expects to land as deputy auditor.

Mr. Nebeker Made Good the Loss.

WASHINGTON, May 26.-Treasurer Nebeker has returned from New York, and expects to leave for his home on Thursday. Mr. Nebeker's conversations with New York bankers do not lead him to take a very roseate or even sanguine view of the financial situation, and he is fearful of some very critical moments in the financial history of the coming rionths.

Mr. Nebeker to-day paid into the tressury $1,055, that amount having been stolen or lost from the treasury cash. The money was all lost in the redemption division of the treasurer's office at three different times-and all since the 4th of last March. At the time of the occurrences the losses were reported to Mr. Drummond, chief of the secret service of the Treasury Department, but he has been unable to discover how the money disappeared, whether by theft or by getting into the waste paper.

A telegram was received at the War De partment, to-day, stating that the great crevasse in the banks of the Mississippi, near Lake Providence, had caused great destitution among the inhabitants of the country, many of whom have been rendered homeless, and asking for the loan of tents. No action has yet been taken by Secretary

Lamont. Robert T. Lincoln, ex-minister to Great Britain, was at the State Department today. He had a long talk with Secretary Gresham, and the two afterwards repaired to the White House, where Mr. Lincoln had an interview with the President. Reports received at the Treasury Department indicate a larger registration of Ch .nese than at first anticipated. So far reports from forty-nine out of the sixtythree internal revenue districts of the United States show that 11,278 Chinese have registered. The latest returns are from the Pacific coast, and show: California, 4,350; Oregon, 1,015. Secretary Gresham has received official notice of the purpose of the Italian government to raise its diplomatic representative at Washington to the grade of an embassador. It is presumed that the present Italian minister. Baron Fava, will succeed to the new office. Our minister to Italy will now be made an embassador. Advices received at the Treasury Depart.

John Jarrett, secretary of the Association of Iron and Steel Manufacturers, says that he gave Mr. Carr full information in regard to the location of the tin-plate mills in this country, and that the Welshman did not go near any of them. Mr. Jarrett also says that when he told the Cardiff editor that tin-plate makers got three times as much for their labor here as they did in Wales-that is, 23 cents per box. ms against 7 cents there—and that all other mill labor was paid proportionally higher wages, and that in the houses the men get 12 and 15 cents per box, as against 5 cents with them, Mr. Carr admitted that the labor was paid proportionally higher drafts postal orders payable to 50 cents and later to $1.

UNKNOWN MAN INJURED.

Found Between the Tracks on the Belt-City Ambulance Wouldn't Take Him.

A young negro, name unknown, was found lying between the tracks of the Belt railroad, near East street, last night, apparently badly burt. He was unable to speak, and it was thought that he had been knocked down by the cars. The city ambulance was sent for, but on arrival at the Belt the driver refused to take charge of the man because there were no bones

The police patrol was then summoned, and the negro brought to the station house. He lies in a stupor, and only speaks when any attempt is made to arouse him; he then gives vent to piercing screams. The operators at the Belt state that he was in the office a half hour before he was discovered lying on the track, inquiring the time the train passed.

Arrested as a Gambler. Charles Tipton, the keeper of a saloon at No. 60 Massachusetts avenue, was arrested by officers Nicholson and Bolan last night, on a warrant sworn out by Mrs. Ada Swick, charging Tipton with being the Reeper of a gambling house. The prisoner avers that no gaming goes on at his place, and claims that his arrest was instigated by Mrs. Swick's husband, whom he has repeatedly ordered out of his saloon. The Swicks reside at the corner of Pennsylvania and Michigan streets. Falled to Account for the Machines. Jack Lee, the colored man employed as a driver of the delivery wagon of Beckner & Dugan, house furnishers on North Illinois street, was arrested yesterday afternoon by detectives Thornton and McGuff on the charge of larceny. The arrest was made on complaint of the receiver of the firm that the driver had taken out several sewing machines and had failed to account for them.

Caught in an Elevator, Wright Horseman, a porter in the employ of the Bates House, suffered a badly mangled foot yesterday afternoon by having the member caught between the elevator and the fourth floor. The accident was unavoidable and was caused by the failure of the elevator boy to hear the bell. The injured employe was taken to the City Hos-pital, manager Reibold sending him out in

On a False Alarm. The fire department was called to the Deaf and Dumb Institute this morning on a false alarm. The night watchman thought he saw smoke issuing from the boys' dormitory, and turned in the alarm without investigation.

Allen County's Payment, Allen county yesterday paid into the State treasury $90,806.12, and drew out for schools $45,005.98. This is about the same per cent, of the payment into the treasury that other counties showed, and does not indicate padding. Small Fire.

TERRIBLE ITCHING

Used Everything Five Months. In Three Weeks not a Scar or Pimple. Cured by Cuticura.

When my baby was three months old his cheeks and forehead began to break out with white pim

it, matter would ooze from the points. In a short time it spread over the top of his head, then scabs soon formed on head and face. We used everything we could bear of for nearly five months. It grew worse all the time. I saw your advertisement of the Cutienra remedies in the "Chicago Weekly." We purchased Cuticura Remedies and commence their use. In three weeks' time there was not a sore or pimple, not even a scar, on head or face. He is nineteen months old now, and has no signs of the disease. His scalp is healthy, and he has Mrs. OSCAR JAMES, Woodston, Kan. Hood's Cures After all Others Fail

Vinnie Davis Constantine, Mich

"I cannot tell in this letter all that Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for us, but can say this much: Our son Vinnie had a running sore on his face, beginning on one side and moving under his chin to the other side. We tried every thing to cure it, but no help came, and for four long years it continued, unsightly and very trouble-some. Several persons usged us to give him Hood's Sarsaparilla, and we found that he im-proved while taking the first bottle. We kept on giving it to him until he had taken four bottle The sore has entirely healed up, nothing rema ing but the sear, which he will carry all his life. He is sound, strong and healthy, and we give all the praise to Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mr. and MRS. G. W. DAVIS, Constantine, Mich.
